The Case File Series in Business Law

Series Chair: Rob Hyndman, Hyndman Law

Location: Donald Lamont Learning Centre

Meet with your colleagues in interactive, facilitated workshops to find solutions to everyday practice issues and enhance your problem-solving skills.

Don't miss the new topics offered in the third installment of the Business Case Files Series. Past participants have raved about the interactive format and excellent learning materials. In this small group, learning-by-doing program, you will have the opportunity to analyze a hypothetical case and exercise your problem-solving skills in three key areas relevant to your business practice: intellectual property law, employment law and mergers and acquisitions. We recommend that you register early to avoid disappointment, as space is limited.
